

March 4th 2014
6:00-8:00 PM

Hosted in one of the very first green building in Miami

Northern Trust
Northern Trust Bank
600 Brickell Ave,
Miami FL 33131

PRE REGISTRATION ONLY
No walk-ins please
FACC Members $20
Non Members $25

Online Registration:
www.faccmiami.com

Complimentary Parking

For more information,
please contact the FACC MIAMI at
contact\(@\)Faccmiami.comFaccmiami.com)

CADRE Committee Construction Architecture Design and Real Estate presents

Miami: Development & Climate Change

moderated by Barry E. Johnson
CEO of Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce

Speakers:

Mark Woerner, Assistant Director for Planning in the Miami-Dade County Department of Regulatory and Economic Resources

He oversees the administration, maintenance and update of the County's adopted Comprehensive Development Master Plan. The Department's Planning Division is the lead office for all land use, comprehensive planning and growth management matters, as well as, historic preservation and sustainability initiatives for Miami-Dade County.

Eric Carpentier, Public Works Director for the city of Miami Beach

The City's Public Works Department is an American Public Works Association (APWA) Accredited agency consisting of nearly 400 public works professionals committed to provide excellent public infrastructure and public services to the City of Miami Beach. Mr. Carpentier is a Florida Licensed Professional Engineer. He has served seven years as member of Board of Directors for South Florida Branch of APWA. He was awarded the 2010 Government Engineer of the Year Award by the Miami-Dade Branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers

Sebastien Eilert - "Green" Architect

German born Architect practicing in Miami, Florida as Principal of Sebastian Eilert Architecture, Inc. Project focus is on sustainable design and consulting, as well as historic preservation. Involved in the local building industry and AIA component since 1998. Founding member of the USGBC South Florida Chapter and chair of the AIA Miami Committee on the Environment (COTE). 2005 Historic Preservation and 2011 & 2009 Sustainable Design Architect award from the local AIA community. Teaching at the University of Miami, School of Architecture a class on Contemporary Sustainable Design

