ART FOR GOOD (Optional)

For this special event we chose to support SAM, a beautiful project using Art to fight a great cause. They will be here to present their mission and answer all your questions.

Street Art for Mankind (SAM) statement: "We are a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization on a mission to stop child slavery through Art! We have united 30+ international Street Artists and Nobel Peace Prize Winner, Kailash Satyarthi, to raise awareness and funds against one of the most critical and paradoxical issues of our developed 21st Century: Child Slavery. We are currently organizing our first art exhibition for November in Miami. Then we plan to take it to Paris, Seoul, Sao Paolo and Dubai. For more information, you can visit our website at www.streetartmankind.org"

☐ Please check this box if you are willing to give 5% of your proceed to this cause as we do

3. General Provisions

- A. The organizers and the Artist shall divide the proceeds of the sale of any works subject to this Application in the following manner after the applicable sales tax of 7% has been deducted as well as any credit card processing fees: The Artist to receive eighty 80/100 percent (80%)* and the organizers to receive twenty 20/100 percent (20%) (the "Commission"). The Commission shall be applicable to any and all sales that occur during the Event and shall also include sales of any other works of the Artist made to people introduced to the Artist by the Organizers that occur during and after the Event and shall apply whether the art is purchased in the person's individual capacity or through a company.

* 75% for the artist and 5% for the cause if option selected by artist
